

CITIZENS
EQUAL
RIGHTS
FOUNDATION
=

Four National CERF/CERA Conferences Massachusetts 3/2/2013, New York 3/9/2013,
Bellingham Washington 4/6/2013, Wisconsin 4/2013 and California 6/2013
Tribal Issues Conference – register at the door – crash course in Federal Indian Policy!
CERA/CERF invites you to a one day NW REGIONAL Educational CONFERENCE

Saturday April 6TH, 2013, Best Western Lake Way Hotel, 714 Lake Way Drive
Bellingham (360-671-1011)

Join Citizens Equal Rights Foundation (CERF)/Citizens Equal Rights Alliance (CERA) for a day of fast paced learning, interaction/understanding of how Federal Indian Policy affects you and how you can protect/defend your property & citizen rights in Washington State

- Court Cases – Current and decided, Water Rights Issues, Land acquisitions – Legal or not?, Fee to Trust – Applications in process and those Completed, Casino Regulations – Sovereignty – Business and Economics, Help for local municipalities!

For information or to Email notification of your attendance:
Tom Williams tomwilliams@afo.net (360-201-6235)

.....
*

Register at the door before 9:00 – starts promptly at 9:00
Conference is free: $20.00 registration includes Lunch, all conference materials.
If you prefer no meals, please attend – we would love to see you there!

Invited Presenters include:

Elaine Willman, MPA (Wisconsin) Director of Community Development & Tribal Affairs, Village of Hobart Wisconsin (Chair of CERA from 2002-2007).

Lana Marcussen, Esq. (Arizona) Attorney for Federal Indian Policy, Water Issues, Involved at Supreme Court level in many Federal Indian Policy cases and individual Indian civil rights cases.

Butch Cranford (California) Retired Engineer, self-taught subject matter expert in Federal Indian Fee-to-Trust policy, Indian Gaming Regulatory Act,

Marlene Dawson, pro se Attorney, former Whatcom County Council, retired, self-taught subject matter expert in Federal Indian Policy, Indian land title, Fee-to-Trust, N.W. Treaties and reservations

Philip Brendale, retired, Cowlitz Indian, participated in several court cases, self-taught subject matter expert in Boldt Decision, legal issues, water

Skip Richards, paralegal, Washington water issues

CITIZENS
EQUAL
RIGHTS
FOUNDATION
=

Conference registration fee is FREE; however, if you desire Breakfast ($10) and lunch ($12) you may pay at the door. The conference will provide all materials for those who pre-register by mail.

I/We will attend the CONFERENCE. If you prefer no meals, please attend – we would love to see you there!

Name _____

Address _____

Organization _____

Elected Official _____

Contact Information: Phone _____ Email _____

My most important issue _____

Please add information about the following to the agenda: _____